

July Events @ Clockworks Café

241 Commercial St NE ♦ Downtown Salem

Saturday, July 2 through Monday, July 4

Clockworks Café & Cultural Center

will be closed to give employees the opportunity to spend Independence Day weekend with their family, and to support our local festivities.

Wednesday, July 6 – 5:30 to 7:30pm

First Wednesday Celebration

KMUZ Community Radio and Culture Shock brings you HULA-HOOP JAM by StarFlower Hoops. Join us on Chemeketa St, between Commercial and Liberty. Hula hoops - large and huge - will be available for "rent" and sale. Donations received for hula hooping provisions will go to KMUZ. After, Clockworks is hosting Be a Dee Jay on KMUZ radio. Learn what it takes to have your own radio program!

Wednesday, July 6 – 7:30 to 10pm

7:30 to 10:00

Live Music Jam Session

Public is encouraged to bring their instruments and join the fun.

Friday, July 8th – 7pm

Songwriters Circle

Four local songwriters gather on the stage to share the stories behind their favorite songs, and then perform them, to stunning results.

Saturday, July 9th – 1 to 3pm

Live Art w/ the Infamous Nina Nightshade

Live costumed models pose for art drawing and photography. Open to anyone with art supplies or a camera and is free of charge. (However, we do ask that you tip the models as they are doing this service unpaid.) Pose times range from 3 minutes to 20 minutes and include a variety of models done up to create some fun and interesting images.
